        C                                                C              G   Am
V1      Grace unmeasured, vast and free, That knew me from eternity
            C                  F
        That called me out before my birth
          Am          Dm    G         F
        To bring You glory on this earth
        C                  F                              C                G   Am
        Grace amazing, pure and deep, That saw me in my misery
            C                    F
        That took my curse and owned my blame
        Dm         F           G            C    G/B
        So I could bear your righteous name

         Am              F                      C/E                      Gsus  G
CH      Grace (grace, grace) - Paid for my sins and brought me to life
